Meet our students

Our students have, on average, 10-12 years of working experience in managerial- and executive-level roles at leading local companies and multinational organisations, including Samsung, Nestle, HSBC, EY Consulting and New Zealand Trade and Enterprise, across a wide range of trade-related industries.

My Nguyen
Marketing Director, TV and Audio Business Division,
Samsung Vietnam

The program is helping me to grow within my current role. For my next move, I want to take a role in general management. I hope the program will be a pathway into a regional role or a global role. In the class, we have about 30 students from different countries and different industries. With that diversity, it's great to exchange knowledge and ideas.

Designed in collaboration with industry

Many leading industry partners were involved in the development of the curriculum and continue to engage in the program. Their support ensures that students gain the most contemporary knowledge and skills as part of an educational experience that is relevant and practical to their careers.
